

2022 T.I.P. Championships

Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance High Point Award winners

- Aiken: Hunter – Enduring Honor ridden by Joy Nakrin, adopted from Blue Bloods Thoroughbred Adoption & Placement
- Aiken: Jumper – Oh MiLord ridden by Heather Richard, adopted from Akindale Thoroughbred Rescue
- Aiken: CT – Lotsnlotsofchrome ridden by Jennifer Cobb, adopted from Rerun
- Aiken: Dressage – Simple Twist of Fate ridden by Robin White, adopted from Second Stride
- Aiken: Pleasure – Perfect Imperfection ridden by Sarah Laderman, adopted from Midatlantic Horse Rescue
- Kentucky: Ranch – Stonecatcher, ridden by Raechel Ramsey, adopted from New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program
- Kentucky: Western Pleasure – no eligible horses
- Kentucky: Barrels – Nucks, ridden by Megan Hems, adopted from Second Chance Thoroughbreds
- Kentucky: Dressage – Buckeye Warrior, ridden by Holly Zecchin, adopted from New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program
- Kentucky: Competitive Trail – Wally K, ridden by Monique Cameron, adopted from Galloping Out

Retired Racehorse Project Makeover Alumni High Point Award winners

- Aiken: 2018 & Prior Alumni – Passing Parade ridden by Brenda Awad
- Aiken: 2019 Alumni – Sky Full Of Stars ridden by Brayden Gault
- Aiken: 2020 Alumni – Talk Show Man ridden by Lindy Gutman
- Aiken: 2021 Alumni – Perfect Imperfection ridden by Sarah Laderman
- Aiken: 2022 Entered – Candy Empire ridden by Talia Kraynak
- Kentucky: 2018 & Prior Alumni – Justa Jester ridden by Christy Drent
- Kentucky: 2019 Alumni – Snap Decision ridden by Kristen Brennan
- Kentucky: 2020 Alumni – Sunset Beach ridden by Sommer Cook
- Kentucky: 2021 Alumni – Dispatcher ridden by Stephanie Calendrillo
- Kentucky: 2022 Entered – Buckeye Warrior ridden by Holly Zecchin