THOROUGHBRED PREMIER SERIES PREVIEW SHOW

WHAT IS THE THOROUGHBRED PREMIER SERIES SHOW?

After more than a decade of growth in Thoroughbred participation at horse shows across North America, The Jockey Club is taking the next step with a new pilot series of Thoroughbred-only horse shows launching in 2027.

Designed to put the spotlight squarely on the breed, these high-quality events will feature multiple disciplines at locations across the United States. The series will give Thoroughbreds their own premier stage, celebrating their athleticism, versatility, and growing impact in the sporthorse world.

WHY IS THIS SHOW A “PREVIEW”?

To celebrate the launch of the Thoroughbred Premier Show Series, the 2026 T.I.P. Championships will feature a Hunter Classic and a Jumper Classic for qualified horses, as well as standalone classes for green horses and novice riders who aren't quite ready for T.I.P. Championships yet but want to enjoy the festivities and community of the event.

There is no qualification required for the Green Horse and Novice Rider classes but we do ask that all horses and riders be declared to participate.
